

10. september 2018	Vingsted Centeret
14:30 – 16:00	Registration, Check-in and coffee
16:00 - 19:00	Time for informal national meetings
19:00 – 22:00	Opening Programme at The Iron Age Village, VejleMuseerne

11. september 2018	Jelling
07:30	Breakfast
08:45	Bus to Jelling
08:45	Coffee & Croissant
09:30	Opening of Conference
10 min	Welcome to University College Lillebælt Erik Knudsen, rector of University College Lillebælt
20 min	Cultural heritage belong to our children and grandchildren Opening address by Ph.D. Peter Yding Brunbech, Nationalt Videnscenter for historie- og kulturarvsformidling, National Center for education and communication historical and cultural heritage HistorieLab, Jelling
20 min	The ability to disseminate and communicate our UNESCO World Heritage Stories to young children is of key importance to the future success of UNESCO World Heritage places. In a future where children are considered digital natives, the importance of creating real -on location- explorations, which provide joyful and learning rich experiences, cannot be ignored when managing our UNESCO World Heritage places. The key note suggests some guiding principles and look at how we can establish playful, creative learning rich experiences. Jens Maibom, Senior director at LEGO Foundation, former Vice President and General Manager of LEGO Education. Chairman in the Parish Council for Jelling Church, and member of the Steering Group for the UNESCO World Heritage Jelling.
10:30	Break
10:45	News from UNESCO World Committee Jørn Holme og Beate Strøm, Norge
20 min	News from the NWA
20 min	The World Heritage Leadership Programme Eugene Jo, World Heritage Leadership Programme Coordinator, Sites Unit, ICCROM

12:00	Lunch
13:00	Best Practice, children learning about world Heritage, Nordic Example
13:30	Cultural Heritage for small children – a workshop about best practice in UNESCO-sites. What is “history” about? What’s in it for me – concentrating on learning? How do you ensure the appreciation of the children perspective – learning through body and senses? How do you find the potential in the co-operation between kindergarten/schools and the museums/UNESCO-sites? Lars Kjær and Mette Christensen, HistorieLab, Jelling
15:00	Coffee break and opportunity to network at Sognehuset
15:30	Workshop in groups
16:00	Brief Introduction to Jelling - Challenges Morten Teilmann-Jørgensen Jelling Church
16:15	Exploring the Jelling Monuments Guided tours of the UNESCO SITE and the Experience Center Kongernes Jelling – Home of the Viking Kings
18:00	Catching your breath – Beer tasting on the Roof top Terrace of Kongernes Jelling
18:30	Dinner in groups at local eateries in Jelling
20:00	Evening song in the church
20:30	Bus transfer to our hotel

12. september 2018	Christiansfeld
07:30	Breakfast
08:30	Bus departure for Kolding
09:30	Highlight tour of Koldinghus, the 750 old Royal Castle in Kolding World class historical attraction close to the UNESCO World Heritage Sites
10:45	Bus departure for Christiansfeld
11:30	Conference start in Christiansfeld Welcome to Christiansfeld Mayor Jørn Pedersen
	Brief Introduction to Christiansfeld – Challenges Birgitte Lamp, Site Manager and Manager of Christiansfeld Centret
11:45	Lunch
12:30	Tour of the UNESCO SITE Christiansfeld
13:45	Conference start in Christiansfeld
13:45	Living heritage – contemporary cases of religion and heritage sites Marie Vejrup, Ass. Professor Head of the Study of Religion at Aarhus University
14:10	While waiting for the others – Christiansfeld, a representative for the international World Heritage in Denmark Jørgen Bøytler, PhD, Minister of the Moravian Church
14:20	Climate change and mass invasion of tourists – is Ilulissat becoming the new Iceland? And how does the development affect the local community? Site manager Frederik Lennert
14:40	Coffee break
15:10	Thingvellir National Park – sacred mass tourism site? Einar Á.E.Sæmundsen, Director of Thingvellir National park
15:30	Valuing sustainable Development in UNESCO World Heritage Sites

	Professor Janne Liburd, Institute for Design and Communication, The University of Southern Denmark
15:50	Virtual World Heritage Network Lena Landström, site manager Decorated Farmhouses of Hälsingland and Josephine Rydberg, Crossmedia Developer, Region Gävleborg
16:00	World Heritage Scholarship invitation to apply! Anna-Karin Ferm, World Heritage Developer, Region Gävleborg
16:10	Wrapping up the day – challenges and experiences
16:30	See you next year in Stockholm Louise Schlyter, County Administrative Board, Stockholm
17:00	Bus departure for Vingsted
19:30	Festive Dinner

13. september	Post-tour to the Wadden Sea
8:00	Departure for the Wadden Sea after check out of hotel
	The UNESCO World Heritage Site of the Wadden Sea invites to a guided tour of the new Wadden Sea Center and the exhibition The Migratory Birds' Wadden Sea. After lunch, we make use of the low tide as are dressed in rubber boots and walk the mudbanks of the Wadden Sea. With a naturalist, we explore the unique life of the mudflats and hear stories of life in the Wadden Sea – the largest National Park in Denmark and a UNESCO site since 2014. 9:30 Arrival Wadden Sea Centre 9:45-10:45 Guided tour of the exhibition 10:45-11:15 Exploring the unique architecture of The Wadden Sea Centre 11:15-11:45 Lunch 11:45-12:00 Dressing up in rubber boots – provided by the Centre 12:00-14:00 Wading the Wadden Sea 14:15 Departing the Wadden Sea 16:00 Arrival at Billund Airport 16:45 Arrival at Vejle for train connections.

	The cost of the post-tour is 80 euro which includes entrance to the Wadden Sea Centre, guided tours, lunch and coffee and bus transfer to Billund Airport and Vejle for those travelling by train. The post-tour requires a minimum of 20 participants to be completed at this price.